

Morning Call Photographer Spends Day With North Whitehall Farmers at Rising Sun 'Barn Raising Bee'

Pennsylvania German Spirit of Neighborly Helpfulness Which Did So Much Toward Development of Lehigh County Still Exists, 'Bee' on Jacob D. Kuhns' Farm Demonstrates

By HENRY A. GESSLER

It was a day of neighborly help and cooperation that was the spirit of the "Barn Raising Bee" on the farm of Jacob D. Kuhns, near Rising Sun, Pa., last Saturday. The event was a demonstration of the Pennsylvania German spirit of neighborly help and cooperation, which has done so much toward the development of Lehigh County.

Each year the community has raised more than a dozen barns, and it is a tradition that has been passed down from generation to generation.

Gehman Farm Cow Takes Lead

Is High in Butterfat Production for Month of January

The Gehman Dairy farm, one of the best in the Lehigh Valley, has a cow that is producing a record amount of butterfat milk. The cow, named 'Betty', has produced 12,000 pounds of milk with a butterfat content of 12.5 percent during the month of January.

The farm is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Gehman, and they are proud of their cow's performance. They have been breeding cows for many years and have a reputation for producing high-quality milk.

The cow's record is a testament to the care and attention given to the farm's animals. The Gehmans provide the best of care for their cows, and they are confident that 'Betty' will continue to produce at a high level in the coming months.

Baby Services and Lenses On Feed for Showings

The Lehigh Valley Dairy Association is holding a series of showings for baby services and lenses on feed. The showings are being held at the Gehman Dairy farm, and they are open to all members of the association.

The showings are a great opportunity for members to see the latest in baby services and lenses on feed. They are also a chance for members to learn more about the latest in dairy farming techniques.

The Gehman Dairy farm is a member of the Lehigh Valley Dairy Association, and they are proud to host these showings. They are confident that all members will find the showings to be a valuable experience.
